

The Ladies Working Dog Group Socialisation Checklist For Puppies & Sensitive Dogs

Socialisation is a critical part of a puppies life. If it's missed, it can lead to your dog becoming sensitive to different stimuli. If this has happened, there are steps you can take to diminish, or totally remove the issue, depending on your dogs sensitivity.

Here's a Free Checklist for you to use to ensure your puppy or sensitive dog, is happy with most items and situations. This can act as a starter point for you to work from.

Other People:

Men Women Babies Toddlers Teenagers People carrying out sports Postman Crowded Environments People displaying different emotions People carrying objects People carrying guns

Frequently Heard Noises:

Vacuum Cleaner Washing Machine Hairdryer Radio Television Letter Box Door Bell Door Knocking Car Engine Motorbikes Starter Pistol Shot Gun Fireworks Lawnmowers

Other Animals:

Other breeds of dogs Cats Sheep Horses Chickens Ducks Pheasant and other game Rabbits Birds in public parks Deer Geese

Environments :

Bathroom Noisy events Beaches Stairs Shops Bridges Water Shows Car Air Conditioning Dog Boxes Coffee Shop Pub Flags Vets Groomers

Objects

Brush Prams Moving Vehicles Mirrors Guns Stop Flags Hats Umbrella's Walking Sticks Motorised Scooters Shopping Trolleys Leads Dog Brush Dog Claw Clippers

Permission is granted for you to download to add to puppy packs to show new owners what socialisation they may wish to work on . If your dog is nervous, head over to our masterclass on Working With A Sensitive Dog for further training and advice.